Assembly Instruction

Congratulations on your purchase of a Westwood product. We take great pride in the quality and design of our furniture. The safety of your child is our highest priority. It is important that you read these instructions carefully and completely to ensure that this product functions as it was designed.

After opening the package, check to see that all the parts are present. If you think something is missing, please contact your retailer, and they can arrange to have the missing parts quickly replaced. You can also contact us directly, by calling 1-908-719-4707, or emailing support@westwoodbaby.com

If any aspect of these instructions is unclear, please contact your retailer or Westwood Design for assistance.

In addition to meeting our own extensive in-house testing and standards, this crib has been independently tested to meet JPMA certification standards.

Were you expecting more hardware?

This crib uses Westwood's ground-breaking Always There Hardware system. The hardware is permanently contained inside the crib, so it is easier to assemble, there is no hardware to misplace if you put the crib into storage, and no chance of using the wrong bolt in the wrong location.

We believe this is perhaps the easiest convertible crib in the world to assemble, but if any part of these instructions is unclear, please contact your retailer or Westwood for help. For general support and help questions, you can contact Westwood directly by calling 1-908-719-4707, or emailing support@westwoodbaby.com.

The screws and bolts on your crib are equipped with a locking mechanism under the head to help prevent loosening, but it's still a good idea to check them once in a while and tighten them if needed.

CARE AND MAINTENANCE

- After completing assembly, check that all bolts and screws are secure and tight. Hardware can become loose over time, so it is your responsibility to periodically check the tightness of all fasteners for as long as you use the crib.
- Wood is a natural material. As such, it can be affected by changes in temperature and humidity. Extreme changes in humidity and temperature can cause the wood to warp, swell, crack, or shrink, thus compromising the structural integrity of the crib and making it dangerous to use.
- Use caution when placing the crib in storage to avoid extremes in temperature or humidity. Cribs should always be stored indoors in climate controlled, dry locations.
- Use care when using a vaporizer or humidifier around the crib. Do not aim the vapor at the crib or any other wooden furniture in the nursery. Avoid using vaporizers or humidifiers for extended periods of time.
- To clean the crib, wipe with a damp cloth and immediately dry the surface. Do not use any chemical cleaners or polishes. Such products can leave a residue on the finish and come in contact with your child.
- Your crib has a durable and protective non-toxic finish. However, if you decide to refinish it, you must use a non-toxic finish specified for children's products. Do not use any toxic stripping methods to remove the old finish.
